“The things that thou hast heard of me...the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.” —2 Tim 2:2

Dear Pastor Kelley and Friends,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your faithful prayers and unwavering support over these past months. Your intercession has been a profound source of comfort and strength, especially throughout my dear wife's journey through cancer, her time in hospice, and her homegoing to be with the Lord on June 5.

We were blessed with 59 wonderful years of marriage—years filled with God's goodness and grace, and they were truly the most treasured of my life. As I adjust to this new season, I continue to lean on the Lord for strength and deeply appreciate your continued prayers during this time of transition.

I also want to share a glimpse of God's ongoing work in the ministry. We recently concluded our youth camp, and we are rejoicing over what the Lord has done! There were over 200 that attended, the preaching was powerful, and the Spirit of God moved mightily. Five answered God's call to full-time ministry, and many others made heartfelt decisions for deeper consecration. We give all glory to God for His faithfulness and the fruit we're seeing in the lives of these young people.

Last month, our pastors held our regional pastors' meeting at Beautiful Baptist Church, pastored by Ildelfonso Escalante—a faithful graduate and also professor at our Bible College. The church is thriving, averaging 115 in weekly attendance, and recently planted a mission work led by one of our current students. That mission church is already averaging 45 in attendance, and between the two congregations, 25 souls came to Christ last month. We praise the Lord for this continued harvest!

Thank you once again for standing with us in prayer and encouragement. Your partnership means more than words can express, and it remains a vital part of all God is doing through this ministry.
