JAPAN CHURCH NEWS The Amagi church reported one baptism in December. Visitors attended the Christmas services at Amagi, Kitakyushu and Kokura. Thirty children attended the Kokura children's Christmas service.

PRAY FOR THE KOKURA CHURCH Missionary Mike Winters returned to the States for a much-needed furlough. Pastor Fukuda will preach there twice a month during Mike's absence, and Mike will send messages by video for the other Sundays. Please pray for the faithful believers at Kokura.

MY BOOK Cherry Blossoms and Tidal Waves, my latest book, is available on Amazon and other leading book distributors. The book is a collection of one-page stories, some quite humorous, and others quite sad. Many people who buy the book say it is an excellent devotional-type book.

NEW MINISTRY A missionary couple who worked with me in Japan for a while had to leave the field during the Covid crisis. Now they are preparing to return to Japan next year. He wants to have several sermons ready by the time he arrives on the field, so I am helping him translate some of his English sermons into Japanese.

Thank you for the support of $100 in December and $50 in January.
